SUFFRAGE PREPARES FOR MRS. BOISSEVAIN

Great preparations for the final Inez Milholland demonstration of the national woman's party, are already being made by the local branch, although the big meeting will not be held until the 25th of this month. The woman's party hopes that the flavor of the affair will be spread all over Phoenix and into the surrounding towns through the unusual advertising the big rally is to have.

The purple, white and gold banners, which are the colors of the woman's party and Congressional Union of Woman Suffrage, will flutter from many points of vantage in Phoenix, and the cards used to advertise the event, especially designed for the whole state of Arizona, are in the form of a woman's party tri-colored flag, with Mrs. Boissevain's portrait in the center.

The picture used is the familiar one of this well-known beauty, showing her crowned with laurel as she rode at the head of the great New York suffrage demonstration a few years ago. Mrs. Boissevain, although she speaks in but four Arizona cities, has mapped out the most strenuous trip of any suffrage campaigner. She speaks from the platform of the special car in which she makes the trip in every suffrage state. In Prescott, Rose Winslow, the young Polish girl, who is to be the feature of the big Phoenix rally, Saturday, joins Mrs. Boissevain and speaks with her from the same platform. The sharp contrast between the sophisticated busy college graduate and woman of the world, and this amazing young woman of labor, who has pushed herself to the top through her own efforts, will make the Phoenix meeting unusually dramatic. Rose Winslow's Saturday meeting in Phoenix will be her only formal appearance in this city.

"BUSH" BUYS A CAR—Frederick H. Myers, chief theater ad hustler for The Republican, bought himself a new automobile yesterday. It is a real one, with six cylinders, and is labeled "Buick." There is a legend being circulated at a late hour tonight (as this is written) that "Bush" slept in his car. Anyway, he is enthusiastic enough about it for that.

FISHER AT WASHINGTON—Robert S. Fisher will speak at the Washington school house, northwest of the city tonight. The address will be delivered by invitation of a local committee. Mr. Fisher is receiving daily invitations from all parts of the country, and the demand for his addresses exceeds the time at his disposal. The subject at the Washington school will be "What I will do—and why."

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS—There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office containing the following: E. A. Frost, H. K. Street, Jno. Hamilton, Wm. Burris, E. W. Baker, James Merray, Clyde Ewing, Mrs. Cora Buena, George Schuch, Ramon Perez, John Callahan, W. P. Hopkins, Frank G. Garrison, Walter Friedenberg, Merritt and McNeil John Hollingsworth, Ethel Simmons, M. A. Sylvester and Chas. L. Morton.

EXHIBIT ON WAY—A carload of vegetables, fruit and other products of the valley left Phoenix last night for El Paso, where the accumulation will be the Salt River valley exhibit at the International Irrigation congress being held there next week. If there are any ranchers in the valley, who failed to get their exhibits in, they can have them sent by taking them to the Chamber of Commerce. The Southern Pacific donated the car to carry the exhibits to El Paso.

WOMEN BILLPOSTERS BUSY ADVERTISING WOMAN'S PARTY TRAIN

Woman suffrage has brought something new and novel in the way of bill posting in Arizona. Phoenix has a company of women bill-posters that can back any circus organization of the may. It is a branch of the publicity committee of the general committee, under the direction of Mrs. C. P. Ainsworth, an entertainment of the woman's party train that will be here October 20. This sub-committee is headed by Mrs. E. E. Marks, who is assisted by the following women:

Mrs. Sims Ely, Mrs. J. L. Gant, the Glendale chairman, Mrs. E. E. Kirkland, Mrs. W. O. O'Neil, Mrs. Chas. Arnold, Mrs. C. S. Scott, Mrs. J. S. Jenckes, Mrs. Clinton Lauer, Mrs. Hugh Dugan, Mrs. E. L. Manning, Mrs. J. E. Goddard, Mrs. Goudouski, Mrs. Lou Emerson, Mrs. Earl Curtis, Mrs. C. W. Isham, Mrs. Oscar Roberts, Mrs. Lillie Ellis, Mrs. J. T. Etter, Mrs. W. E. Twitchell, Mrs. Walter Bennett, Mrs. F. O. Adams. That the men of the world might have some representation in this day of the new woman, J. H. Kipp is added to the committee to represent "Grime Red," Creighton for Laveen, and B. A. Redden for Tempe.

The chief duty of this committee is for each member to see that posters announcing the coming of the woman's train are properly displayed in his or her respective district.

As is now quite well known, this entire movement is a part of the great Hughes national campaign, and so interested in the importance of their work is every member of this committee that they feel around all other duties and obligations save those of home life. And these are often attended to by the extra efforts of the building workers. Father gets three good meals per day even if mother rises early and returns late for the work of the campaign must be done. Attention is called to the fact that this is strictly a political movement, and not an exclusive social affair—a noble work in a common cause. In the common duty all unite for a common cause at the polls. Many of the satin gown is as apt to be noticed scolding up a side street tack hammer in hand as she of the glitz dress, and likewise the festivities are not to be in clothes, but loyalty to the cause and active efforts.

One little lady was seen yesterday covering her district. Rather than to be bothered with carrying the usual accoutrements of the bill poster, her method was first to scout out the proper location, then feel around for a rock with which to drive the tacks.

FRED MARTIN ON HIS WAY TO LOCAL RANCH

Fred N. Martin and family, who moved to Webster City, Iowa, last October 10, in a Hudson automobile, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Martin, for this city. They expect to camp at the park of interest en route and arrive about October 25.

Fred will build a modern bungalow with barn, on his ranch near Camelback, beside his brother, Glenn A. Martin, upon his arrival and the Martin Bros. intend to put both ranches into oranges and grapefruit. The latter is a fact that is well known. He has 49 acres in one tract near Camelback all in Marsh seedless grapefruit that will come into bearing next year. The Martin ranches are among the best and most valuable in the valley.

CREIGHTON AND ALMA REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

Republicans of Creighton district are arranging a large rally for tonight in honor of the visit there of Party No. 1, republican county campaigners.

Good meetings have been held by the republicans in a number of the county districts. And more of them are ready or better made ready by local committees.

At tonight's meeting, there will be P. H. Hayes, Harold Baxter, J. C. Reed, Eligh Allen, C. W. Crouse, O. H. Loch, W. J. Galbraith and Ernest Hall.

Party No. 2 will meet with the republicans of Alma Precinct, where the committee has arranged a musical treat in connection with the speaking.

STAN MURPHY IS NOW A BENEDICT

While the course of true love did not run smooth for a time, the romance of Stanwood Murphy had a happy culmination in San Francisco Wednesday when Miss Hazel Rick became the young chaplain's bride.

For years Murphy, who is a grandson of Simon J. Murphy of Detroit and Green Bay and a cousin of Frank Murphy of Prescott, was devoted to the pretty Eureka girl. It was a decided surprise to everyone in northern California when her marriage to a naval officer was announced. Her divorce shortly afterwards created an equal amount of comment. The attractive divorcee resumed her maiden name.

Murphy's brother, Walter Murphy, visited here a year ago and with him was his bride, formerly Adeline Rick. When they left for the coast they were accompanied by Stanwood Murphy, and the renewal of a friendship with the Rick family into which his brother had married resulted in his own engagement.

Mr. Murphy wired his friends yesterday that he was married, but the telegrams were concise and did not state any plans for the future. It is believed that the young people will live here at least a few months of the year at the Murphy ranch on North Seventh avenue. Mr. Murphy belongs to a number of clubs and is popular socially. He has taken an active interest in sports and has driven his racing car to victory at the Prescott Frontier Days.

Five musical numbers and three lectures on the Hi-Y course this year, cost $2.50 including reserved seat.—Adv. 1t

OLD SETTLERS MEET FOR ANNUAL PICNIC

The "Old Settlers" annual picnic will be held next Saturday at the home of Hon. J. C. Goodwin, near Tempe. Any resident of the valley who has lived here for twenty years will be deemed to be an "old settler," and all of them are invited and requested to bring well-filled baskets. There will be an interesting speaking program. Among those who have been invited are Governor Hunt, Representative Hayden, Senator Ashurst and other candidates for state offices. They will probably all be in attendance since they are in this part of the state.

Invitations have been extended to Judge Kibbey, Hon. Thomas Campbell and the republican candidates to be present. But, anyhow, the picnic is to be a nonpartisan affair and it is expected that the tone of the speakers will allude to political matters.

The speaking will take place immediately after dinner and to that feature of the picnic all are invited whether or not they come under the head of "old settlers."

Three-A Auto Race, Starter's Engagement to Miss Val Ward, California Heiress, is Announced

Dick Hollingsworth, who has staged every auto race of any importance in the southwest in recent years, will promote a new venture in Los Angeles. The live wire promoter and official starter of auto races run under the sanction of the A. A. A., will put across the best thing in his career on the coast within the next few weeks. Phoenix will be directly benefited by Mr. Hollingsworth will bring his bride here during fair week.

The exact date of the wedding has not been announced, and even friends have not been advised of the engagement of "Dere Devil Dick" and Miss Val Ward, a southern California heiress. Miss Ward is a charming young woman of dainty blond type. Her father owns the property on which Universal City is located, and she has had many flattering offers from the film company which she has refused to consider. She shares Mr. Hollingsworth's love for the auto and was one time owner of "Skynite," the racing car driven by the world famous driver, Louis Nikrent. It is said that Miss Ward matched Nikrent for the car—$2000 or nothing. While she won she later lost the racer in the same manner.

Hollingsworth when not acting in his official capacity for the A. A. A. is a traveling representative of an auto supply company on the coast with headquarters in Phoenix. He has been traveling through here for years and is one of the best liked men in the game. He is an all round good fellow with everyone who knows him. He expects to "make Phoenix" fair week and has already purchased property near the Country club where he will build an attractive bungalow.
